HOUSE HOLDS

These improvements. The committee believes that any and all monies appropriated for the benefit of the lepers of these islands, while in the hands of the present department heads of the Board of Health, will be honestly, intelligently and with proper due regard for the public welfare, spent for the comfort and benefit of those committed to their charge.
A petition signed by citizens and voters of Kamaekahi, Molokai, was presented, asking that the wharf and building at that place be acquired by the government and made a public wharf and landing; that the government lands there be opened up to bona fide homesteaders; that the $25,000, road and school taxes be repealed as to parents of five or more children, and that the tax on family vehicles in country districts be $3 on four-wheeled carriages and $1.50 on two-wheeled carriages. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

HELIOPOLEIS IS DUE APRIL 25

Stackable Says Steamer Is Better Than Suveric

Although the Associated Press told about trouble with the Spanish emigrants at Malaga, who refused to sail on the Helio polis, the Board of Immigration has heard nothing whatever from Stackable about this phase of the matter. On the contrary a cablegram he sent yesterday indicated that everything was successful. It read as follows:
"Helio polis sailed, 2250 passengers. This shows that while there may have been some difficulty it did not prevent the ultimate success of the Helio polis shipment."
A rough estimate would place the number of full fares at about 1500. This is based on the Suveric figures, and may of course be wrong one way or the other. Under the Helio polis charter children under one year are carried free, children between one and eight years count as half fares, those between 8 and 15 as three-fourths fare, and persons above 15 as full fares.
Secretary J. P. Cooke of the Board of Immigration stated this morning that Stackable had written that the Helio polis was a faster steamer than the Suveric, and that she ought to be able to make the voyage from Malaga to Honolulu in forty-five days. This would make her due here about April 25th.

In one of his letters to the Board Stackable speaks of the Helio polis as follows: "I may add that the Helio polis is a better equipped steamer than the Suveric. Her piercings are better and will afford more light and ventilation, and the sanitary arrangements will be far superior and she has a better hospital and a refrigerator plant on board."
RECOMMEND TO KILL

remain in force, and it therefore recommends that the bill be laid upon the table.
The report was tabled to be considered with the bill.
A resolution was introduced by Brown to insert an item of $1000 to reimburse Pilot Fitzgerald of Hilo for the purchase of a gasoline launch. Referred to the Ways and Means Committee.
Labor Pay Bill Passed
Senate Bill 27, making the pay of Government laborers $1.50 or more, passed third reading by a vote of 12 yeas and 3 nays, Hayselden, McCarthy and Bishop voting against it.
House Bill 39, relating to reports by District and Circuit Judges, passed third reading by a unanimous vote.
House Bill 40, authorizing railroad companies to operate with power other than steam, was referred to the Public Lands Committee.
House Bill 97, relating to fees for banking licenses, was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.
Senate Bill 53, relating to the proceeds from sales and rents of public lands, was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.
House Bill 34, relating to the leper settlement, was referred to the Health Committee.
Senate Bill 29, commonly known as the "Standard Oil Bill," which provided for the authorization of private warehouses for the storage of oils and other liquid explosives, was on motion by Chillingworth deferred until Wednesday at 2 p. m.
Brown introduced a resolution asking for a $24,000 appropriation for sewers, etc., in Hilo. Referred to the Ways and Means Committee.
Coelho moved to adjourn, stating that the Ways and Means Committee needed time to work on the appropriation bill. Carried.

Charles H. Toller of Pleasanton, California, has completed an airship of monster proportions. Mr. Toller, who has been assisted by his wife in the building of the 225 foot airship, claims that he will shortly fly over San Francisco, and continuing on will complete a 200-mile trip before alighting. Six propellers, which project from the airship at different points, are expected to impart all the propelling force needed. The blades of the propellers are adjustable and reversible, and are driven by four engines located in the frame work below the great pongee silk cigar-shaped bag. The airship has cost $72,000 up to date. Mr. Toller claims that he will be able to rise and dip like a bird and can slowly and gently alight when desired.

Blank books of all sorts, ledgers, etc., manufactured by the Bulletin Publishing Company they have never been opened or constructed. The Territorial Government in opening these lands for homestead purposes, has morally obligated itself to open these roads. The Committee, therefore, recommends that the item be inserted in the appropriation bill.

Kalelopo introduced a bill providing that any road or trail through private land which is used for five years without objection of the owner, shall become a government road without further process by law. Passed first reading.
House Bill 96, exempting tobacco growers from paying the annual fee of $10 for the sale by them of tobacco, passed third reading without debate.
The Speaker's table being cleared, and no further business coming up, the House adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.
